LOUIS NATHANIEL NATHAN.

On Saturday afternoon, January 29th, 1910, at 4 o'clock, at Eagle Lake, Texas, death entered the home of J. Nathan and family, robbing them of a most precious treasure, their beloved son and brother, Louis Nathaniel Nathan.

The deceased was a young man, 30 years of age, of rare qualities and many virtues and chief among the latter was his devotion to his parents. In the community in which he lived he was honored and respected and his integrity was unquestioned. To know him was to love him. The various fraternal orders of which he was a member honored him by his election to their high offices. His remains were taken to Hallettsville, Texas, and interred there in the Jewish cemetery, the Masonic Order performing their rites over the body in conjunction with the religious ceremony performed by Rabbi Warsaw of Waco. Many sorrowing friends besides the numerous members of the family attended the funeral.

Among the out of town relatives who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Nathan of Houston,
